Background Information: The Department of Veterans Affairs signed a contract with Alexandria, VA based STG International, Inc. to run the existing Veteran Community-Based Outpatient Clinic (CBOC) in Scottsbluff, NE. On March 2, 2010, the contract took effect. The clinic is now staffed and supported by full-time STGi employees and physicians, but is still part of the Black Hills Health Care System and considered a VA clinic. The clinic continues to offer a full-time pharmacist and a part-time mental health professional provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

At this event, members of the local government and the Department of Veterans Affairs will gather to celebrate the official re-opening of the clinic and to honor local veterans.

About STGi: STG International, Inc.
